Complaint Regarding Dispute Between Land Owner and Licence
Holder - Venkateshwara Agencies (CC184658)

Respected Sir/Madam,

I, Mr. B. Jayachandran, S/o Balakrishnan hereby submit this complaint regarding the dispute between myself (Land owner of BPCL Petrol pump outlet Venkateshwara Agencies (CC184658) Survey No. 396A/4A, Vaniyampet, Thanigai Polur, Arakkonam Taluk, Ranipet District) and Ms. Parvathi who is the licence holder of the BPCL retail outlet namely "Venkateshwara Agencies (CC184658)" situated at Survey No. 396A/4A, Thanigai Polur, Arakkonam Taluk, Ranipet District.

I respectfully submit the following facts for your kind consideration:

1. During 2012, when I planned to open a petrol bunk outlet, I have noticed the News paper advertisement on 15.03.2012 about the appointment of Regular/ Rural retail outlet dealership of BPCL. When I planned to apply to Arakkonam to Itchiputtur area in Sl.No.147, it was reserved for PH(W) category. After hearing one of my friend's advise and suggestion, I approached one Ms. Parvathi who is the relative of my friend and applied for retail outlet dealership of BPCL in her name. Initially it was agreed by both of us that if, the retail outlet allotted to Ms.Parvathi, I have to pay Rs.5000/- per month to her to run the retail outlet dealership of BPCL in her name and all the infrastructure and investment towards the retail outlet dealership of BPCL will be take care and paid by me and later after 10 years after the allotment of license Ms.Parvathi has to transfer of ownership of the retail outlet dealership of BPCL to my name for a consideration of Rs.10,00,000/- (Rupees Ten Lakhs only.)

2. Based on the understanding and oral agreement on April, 2012, I have deposited my own money Rs.17,00,000/- (Rupees Seventeen lakhs only) to Ms.Parvathi Bank account No. 130001000000303, Indian overseas Bank, Arakkonam Branch on 04.05.2012 to show the bonafide of interest towards the retail outlet dealership of BPCL and on 25.03.2015, after allotment of license in favour of Ms. Parvathi, I have paid Rs.3,00,000/- towards the Security deposit, Reference No. 0933 amount for the allotment of retail outlet dealership of BPCL for Venkateshwara Agencies (CC184658). Ms.Parvathi. Based on the trust created by Ms. Parvathi's assurances and kind words, I agreed to lease my valuable property to BPCL since I am going to run the retail outlet dealership of BPCL.

3. From the beginning till date, all expenses regarding with the retail outlet dealership of BPCL for Venkateshwara Agencies (CC184658), including establishment, maintenance, development, and EB Department formalities, have been borne only by me from my personal funds, though the licence stands in the name of Ms. Parvathi. Further, the amounts spent by me towards TNEB-related electrical connection expenses only by me from my personal funds. Even from the formation of the retail outlet dealership of BPCL ground levelling, land filling, Revenue Department NOC all the expenses cost Rs.25,00,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Lakhs only) was paid by me only. Even though Ms. Parvathi is the license holder all the expenses were taken care by me only and the said Ms.Parvathi not paid a single penny from her pocket towards the establishment and running cost and she was not that much financially wealth.

4. During the erection of the retail outlet dealership of BPCL, I have purchased and erected a Power Generator for the cost of Rs.2,00,000/- to run the retail outlet dealership of BPCL and erected Air compressor cost worth Rs.1,50,000/-. From the date of commencement of the agreement with BPCL for Venkateshwara Agencies till today, every major and minor expense relating to the outlet has been managed and paid solely by me and I am running the retail outlet dealership of BPCL from the date of allotment.

5. After starting the BPCL retail outlet during June 2016, the said Ms.Parvathi, demanded an amount of Rs.5,00,000/- for her personal expenses and she asked to deduct from the amount of consideration Rs.10,00,000/- (Rupees Ten Lakhs only.) to transfer of ownership of the retail outlet dealership of BPCL to my name. I had no other choice, but I have paid Rs.5,00,000/- (Rupees Five Lakhs only) as cash to Ms.Parvathi. Other than that I have Initially paid Rs.5,000/- per month to Ms.Parvathi and periodically increased that and now I am paying Rs.15,000/- as monthly payment by cash since I am running the retail outlet and license stands in the name of Ms.Parvathi.

6. Initially, I was doing Railway contract and additionally I recruit one manager namely Mr.Krishnakumar to manage the retail outlet dealership of BPCL and along with the said Ms.Parvathi since she is physically challenged for the work of coordination to BPCL retail outlet works and BPCL official meetings and I have paid a monthly salary to said Mr.Krishnakumar as cash. I have submitted all my land documents copies and BPCL agreement copies to him for official purpose.
7. During the May 2021, Ms. Parvathi demanded a sum of Rs.15,00,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Lakhs only) as against the agreed amount of Rs. 10,00,000/- towards the transferring the ownership of the retail outlet dealership of BPCL for Venkateshwara Agencies (CC184658). In order to settle the matter peacefully, I agreed and settled the demanded amount. After receiving the amount of Rs.15,00,000/-, (Rupees Fifteen Lakhs only), the Ms.Parvathi opened a new bank in A/c. No. 21320200002928, Federal bank, Arakkonam Branch and signed a bunch of cheque leaves and online net banking access towards the payments of fuel purchase from the BPCL. During 2021, I have not completed S.S.L.C. and since the educational qualification is also one of the eligibility criteria to get a the retail outlet dealership of BPCL, I waited till passing the S.S.L.C. examination to transfer the retail outlet dealership of BPCL in my name. After passing the S.S.L.C. examination when I asked Mr.Parvathi to transfer of ownership of license of the retail outlet dealership of BPCL to my shock and surprise she demanded another Rs.25,00,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five lakhs only) to transfer the ownership/rights connected with the outlet arrangements and thereafter she was not in a good communication with me for several years. After her ill behaviour, I continued to work hard and independently developed the petrol bunk business over the past several years through my own efforts, investment, and dedication.
8. Meanwhile a complaint was raised by Ms.Parvathi against me before the Manager (Sales), Vellore and an enquiry meeting was conducted on 13.12.2025. After the meeting the said Ms.Parvathi threatened with the help of Krishnakumar and rowdy by demanding an amount of Rs.1,00,00,000/- (Rupees One Crore only) to transfer to transfer the ownership/rights the retail outlet dealership of BPCL.
9. However, now Ms. Parvathi, along with Mr. Krishna Kumar, who earlier worked as Manager in the outlet under my administration, have together approached the matter and influenced the situation against me. Now, they are jointly demanding an amount of Rs.1,00,00,000/- (Rupees One Crore only), to transfer the ownership/rights the retail outlet dealership of BPCL for Venkateshwara Agencies (CC184658) which has caused me severe mental stress, financial hardship, and disturbance to the smooth functioning of the outlet. Till now I have invested a huge amount more than Rs.50,00,000/- (Rupees Fifty Lakhs only) towards the retail outlet dealership of BPCL for Venkateshwara Agencies (CC184658) believing that I will get transfer of ownership of the said outlet. Now the said Ms.Parvathy along with the said Krishnakumar who was my former manager are demanding and threatening me with rowdy elements to transfer the ownership of the said retail outlet. Unfortunately, after gaining the benefits of the outlet, Ms. Parvathi has now betrayed my trust and, under the influence and advice of certain third parties, she is no longer willing to continue the partnership understanding and mutual cooperation that existed from the beginning

10. A day before yesterday Ms.Parvathi along with Mr.Krishnakumar went to Federal bank, Arakkonam Branch and lodged a complaint with regarding to A/c. No. 21320200002928, which was opened by her me and permit to operate me till the transfer of ownership of retail outlet of BPCL and blocked the account to not pursue to purchase of fuel from the BPCL. It is a great cheating and criminal intention to stall the operation of the retail outlet of BPCL which is running by me in her name. I have kept a balance of Rs.10,00,000/- in that account and she is trying to stall the operation of the retail outlet of BPC L by locking the bank account.
11. I further submit that I have already approached the Arakkonam Taluk Police Station and lodged a complaint regarding the threats, harassment, cheating, and interference caused by Mrs. Parvathi, Mr. Sivakumar, and Mr. Krishnakumar in connection with the operation and ownership dispute relating to "Venkateshwara Agencies (CC184658)." Based on my complaint, the police have issued a Petition Receipt bearing CSR No. 0581/2026 dated 02.07.2026 from Arakkonam Taluk Police Station, Ranipet District. The complaint was registered regarding the unlawful acts, threats, and obstruction caused to the smooth functioning of the BPCL retail outlet operated by me. A copy of the said CSR receipt is enclosed herewith for your reference and necessary action.
12. I further submit that due to the continuous interference, disputes, and unlawful activities taking place at the retail outlet premises, another complaint was also registered before the Arakkonam Taluk Police Station in connection with the disturbances occurring at "Venkateshwara Agencies," Vaniyampettai, Arakkonam Taluk. Based on the complaint, the police issued Petition Receipt bearing CSR No. 0583/2026 dated 04.07.2026. The complaint relates to quarrel, disturbance, and issues arising at the petrol bunk premises involving the persons connected with the present dispute. The repeated police complaints clearly establish that the actions of Mrs. Parvathi and her associates are seriously affecting the peaceful functioning and reputation of the BPCL retail outlet. A copy of the said CSR receipt is enclosed herewith for your kind reference and necessary action

13. I further submit that recently the opposite parties namely Mrs. Parvathi, Mr. Sivakumar, Mr. Krishnakumar, and Mrs. Geetha (W/o Mr. Krishnakumar), along with approximately 20 advocates (including 3 lady advocates and 17 male advocates), totally around 24 persons, unlawfully came to the retail outlet premises of "Venkateshwara Agencies (CC184658)" and created fear, tension, and disturbance at the outlet.

During the said incident, they allegedly assaulted our Manager Mr. Saikrishnan, S/o Kamaraj, and forcibly took away several important business records and materials belonging to the outlet, including:

- KYC records,
- Daily Sales Report,
- Cash amounting more than Rs.50,000/-,
- Purchase vouchers,
- Month-wise daily credit bills,
- Ledger books,
- Locker keys, and
- Office keys.

Further, with the assistance of a local lock vendor, they allegedly changed the office locker lock and key without my knowledge or consent, thereby illegally taking control over important records and restricting access to the office premises. Their acts were unlawful, intimidating, and seriously affected the normal functioning of the BPCL retail outlet and caused severe mental stress and financial loss to me

Hence, In view of the above circumstances, I kindly request you to consider my grievance sympathetically and to conduct the detailed enquiry into the matter against Ms.Parvathi the licence holder of the BPCL retail outlet namely "Venkateshwara Agencies (CC184658)" situated at Survey No. 396A/4A, Thanigai Polur, Arakkonam Taluk, Ranipet District and verify all related records, and take fair and appropriate action in accordance with BPCL policies and legal procedures to resolve the dispute peacefully.

Thanking you.
